

Acknowledgements

The completion of this thesis is due to the warmest supports and helpful advice of many people whom I owe so much. Without these people it would have been hard to imagine how I could survive the process of struggling with this tremendous task. I am glad to have this chance to express my gratitude to people who have been supportive me all the time. The first person I am most indebted to is my thesis advisor, Dr. Chien-chi Liu. His advice has always been very instructive and his thoughtfulness and warmest friendship is unforgettable to me. With his encouragement I learn to have faith in myself and strive to continue my thesis writing. I am also grateful to Dr. Estelle Tsui-fen Jiang and Dr. Kuan-jung Cheng, whose sharp and insightful comments and advices in my oral defense help better this thesis.

Moreover, I would like to express my deepest appreciation for my cherished family, including my parents, elder brother, younger sister and her lovely son. I am proud to say to my parents that with their love and support I am honored to receive my M. A. degree. Now it is time for me to be independent and look after them. My sister and my nephew have accompanied me through many hard times. My nephew's birth has been the most amazing thing to me in the past two years. A look at this little angel's face can wash away all my troubles and pressure immediately.

There are also friends and classmates I am obliged to. Simon has been my best friend since college. His often gives me advice just when I need it. Jennifer used to stand by me, and she also helped me a lot with the composition of this thesis. Gus and Brian have been warm friends; a chat with them is always pleasing. Complaining to each other with Beryl and Brenda about thesis writing assures me that I am not alone fighting here. Allen and Sunny advise me how to write a thesis. I am lucky to have their friendship.

This finish of thesis is the combination of my individual hard working with the support and love of these who support me. No words can fully express my gratitude to and feelings for them. All I can say is that their names deserve to be put before this thesis.